

Peymon Mottahedeh

Peymon Mottahedeh was born on October 9, 1962 in a Jewish Family in Iran. He came to the United States of America in 1977 and received his Bachelors of Science in Business Administration from the California State University in Lon Beach. As soon as Peymon became a naturalized American citizen in 1989 he registered to vote as a Libertarian and became an active member of the Libertarian Party.

In 1992 Peymon got introduced to the Freedom Law/Patriot Movement and after several years of intense studying of the U.S. Constitution the law and American's rights founded Freedom law School on January 1, 2006 www.livefreenow.org . Freedom Law School has been educating thousands of average American about his rights, the law and freedom.

Some of the better known students of Freedom Law School include:

- 1) Former IRS Special Agent, Joseph Banister.
- 2) Former Oklahoma State Representative Charles key.
- 3) The most decorated police officer in the history of the city of Phoenix, Jack McLamb.
- 4) Co-Founder of the Fully Informed Jury Association, Larry Dodge.
- 5) Former IRS Chief Counsel attorney Paul Chapell and
- 6) Paul Ballmer, the man who won and collected from a $250,000 jury trial against the California Franchise Tax Board.

Freedom Law School has had a $300,000 Income Tax Reward/Challenge since 1999 that no IRS agent, lawyer or any government official or judge has ever attempted to refute or collect on.

* This biography was updated on March 18, 2007